MAIN PRESENTER: Mary Turos, Confident Student

Early Decision or Early Action? How much do grades and SAT scores really count?

What do admissions officers really want in a student?

Upon completion of this seminar, seminar participants will:

- Understand how colleges evaluate applicants
- Identifying the 10 “typical” pieces to a complete application
- Organize the college search by utilizing Confident Student’s Admissions Calendar
- Begin a productive college search
- Create an initial target list of schools
- Familiarize themselves with the Common Application
- Understand how to create a “Meaningful” essay
- Understand the differences between Early Decision, Early Action and Rolling Admissions
- Familiarize themselves with the “non academic” challenges facing college freshman

Participants will receive a workbook filled with strategies and ideas to make the college selection process as stress-free as possible!
